

Real Estate CONTINUING EDUCATION Requirements

2024-2026 Renewal Period

The Pennsylvania State Real Estate Commission requires each real estate sales licensee to take 14 hours of continuing education during each license renewal period.

- Anyone licensed after 12/1/25 will NOT take CE for the renewal period 2024-2026.

First time renewing real estate license in PA

New licensees (licensed after 12/1/23) who are renewing for the first time are required to complete the mandatory courses for new licensees pursuant to 49 PA Code §35.384(b). The mandatory required 14-hour CE classes are:

Mandatory: The General Module (7hrs)

PLUS, ONE OF THE FOLLOWING:

Residential Module (7hrs)

or

Commercial Module (7hrs)

NOT my first time renewing real estate license in PA

Licensed prior to 12/1/23 – The mandatory course includes a minimum of 5 (five) hours of the required 14 hours of continuing education which must be taken in a topic that covers

2 hours in Fair Housing

and

3 hours in Agency Relationship

* BCAR does not report Continuing Education to the Pennsylvania Real Estate Commission.
Nor do we maintain a database of transcripts. ****