

Real Estate CONTINUING EDUCATION Requirements

2022-2024 Renewal Period

The Pennsylvania State Real Estate Commission requires each real estate sales licensee to take 14 hours of continuing education during each license renewal period.

Anyone licensed after 12/1/23 will NOT take CE for the renewal period 2022-2024.

➤ First time renewing real estate license in PA?

New licensees (licensed after 12/1/21) who are renewing for the first time are required to complete the mandatory courses for new licensees pursuant to 49 PA Code §35.384(b). The mandatory required 14-hour CE classes are:

Mandatory: The General Module (7hrs)

PLUS ONE OF THE FOLLOWING:

Residential Module (7hrs)

or

Commercial Module (7hrs)

➤ NOT my first time renewing real estate license in PA!

Licensed prior to 12/1/21 – The mandatory course includes a minimum of 3 (three) hours of the required 14 hours of continuing education which must be taken in a topic that covers the responsibilities of the broker and the responsibilities of their licensees in regard to property management, advertising, and general supervision which would include, but not be limited to, commissions and fees.

 BCAR does not report continuing education to the Pennsylvania Real Estate Commission. Nor do we maintain a database of transcripts. **
